Abstract

Introduction: Paraendodontic surgery is a procedure that aims problems resolution that couldn’t be solved by the conventional endodontic treatment, or when the accomplishment conventional treatment is not possible. Case report and conclusion: The aim of this study was to report a clinical case where was made apicectomy on the teeth 11, 21 and 22. The tooth 22 was sealing of root-end cavity MTA retrofilling.

Keywords

Endodonty, surgery, apicectomy, retrograde filling.