Abstract

From Morro del Toix to Racons River, the coast of Marina Alta (Alicante province) shows a great, complex landscape and landuse. In this paper a framework is proposed in order to coastal planning and management, by choosing witness elements that were analized in order to determine some basic guidelines.