Abstract

A case of peritoneal mucinous carcinomatosis in a patient who suffered a Hirschsprung disease 30 year before is presented. TH present condition caused an irreversible intestinal obstruction and the patients received home parenteral nutrition without unremarkable complications longer than two years.

Keywords

Hirschsprung disease, Intestinal obstruction, Peritoneal carcinomatosis, Home parenteral nutrition.