Abstract

The purpose of the present work is to analyze the ideals underlying couple links, according to the expression in the tale “The tiger’s bride”. The method applied for this analysis is the David Liberman algorithm (DLA), a method devised for discourse analysis, based on Freudian theory, which is intended to detect drives and defenses. For the present analysis the method was applied on the level of narratives.

Keywords

Narration analysis, values, ideals, wish, nudity, gaze, subjectivity, meeting, culture, paradigm