Abstract

Polish settlers’ letters in Brazil - This article was based on an essay about the Polish immigrants’ letters from the South of Brazil, translated and published by Friar Victor Stawinski considering the theoretical discussion about the use of epistolary sources as a possible starting point to go deeper into the understanding and analysis of the migratory phenomenon.

Keywords

letters - polish immigration - brazilian literature