Abstract
This is the first of a three part series dedicated to analyze one of the central concepts of medicine: disease. Our first mission will be to revise the diverse and disperse disease definitions. This historical and epistemological revision will stress the naturalist-normativistic dichotomy and Sadegh-Zadehs novel mathematical proposal.

Keywords
Disease; pathology; natural history of diseases.