Abstract
Juan Cepeda finds, in texts of the greek mythology, elements that helps to locate the origin of the western philosophy, like a pre-classic thought, quite a lot of ages before the classic philosophy development around the 12th century B.C., besides he proposes his hypothesis in the literatures philosophy field.

Keywords
origin of the philosophy, pre-classic thought, literatures philosophy, greek mythology.