Abstract
We analyze the three-dimensional trademark before the disengagement of the Andean legislation in the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela. through the study of the consequences of the lack of regulation of the mark, and the design of legal regulation on the three-dimensional trademark, the rights conferred on the owner and the establishment of formal and substantive requirements. The methodology that was applied: Documentary bibliographic design, data collection and legal techniques. It concludes the backlog of half a century in this area, so it is recommended to create a bill.

Keywords
Three-dimensional, trademark, Andean Community, constitutional Chamber