Abstract
It is an experience report, in the form of a salutation speech, and with the testimonial of the Class of Nurses Graduated in 1954, in the celebration of its Gold Jubilee. With a simple and direct aproach, the author describes the Residency/Boarding School, the Class Pavillion and the School Hospital São Francisco de Assis, bulding complex of the Ana Néri School of Nursing of the University of Brasil (Universidade Federal do Rio de Janeiro/UFRJ in the present days) scenery of learning experiencies and student live existent in the 50’s. With a free literary style, that expose some principles that guides the graduation in nursing consistent with the attitude and behavior in the Ana Néri Model style. And presents thankfulness for the education received through the professional formation years.

Keywords
Learning, Baccalaureate, History.