Abstract

Throughout this article we will deal with the topic of the citizen education for the democratic co-existence. After mentioning the concept of citizenship describing it in relation to different subjects, we will follow talking about the value of the citizen education as an essential tool to learn how to live together in a more and more open-minded, complex and global society. We will remark the importance of education to get tolerance and solidarity as well as a way of achieving a real social co-existence.

Keywords

Citizenship, citizen education, democratic co-existence, tolerance, solidarity.