Abstract
This paper describes and analyzes the votive ceremony honoring the Mexican heroes of the emancipatory fight of September 1810, which was profuse regarding symbolical and allegorical courage elements. In such a way that was the great building of a provisional monument dedicated to the honour of these heroic figures, designed by the architect Federico E. Mariscal. The reminder activity was realized in 1910, October 6th. It helped to close the commemorative acts of the First Centenary of the Mexico's Independence.
