Abstract

In this article, the author refers the experience of the Universidad de Castilla-La Mancha, in Spain, when creating an electronic Archive. The objective is to offer through the University’s web site the description of the documentary funds, in order to create an information system accessible to Internet users, that can make searching easily and quickly.

Keywords

Internet, Electronic Archives, Universities, Spain.