Abstract

This article is about the different postures towards the indigenous people in the Andes zone in South America. The author reflects on this by taking two short stories, one from Bolivian writer Alcides Arguedas, published in 1909, and other by the Peruvian writer Jose Maria Arguedas, published in 1935. Abstract by Redalyc.

Keywords

Literature, Andes Zone, Indigenous people.