Abstract
Starting from a dialogic underlying structure, the paper intends to show the incredible similarity between "actors", functions and constitutive dramatic elements between a Greek tragedy and a modern oral trial, as contemporary trial systems are used.

Keywords
Oral trial, tragedy, law structures, literary structures, human conflicts.