Abstract
Reflections were addressed in relation to cultural identity and how it is assumed as a communication process between cultures, through which traits are manifested, specific, characteristic of a group, region, community, village, nation, based on the differentiating and the identifying elements in which different levels of performance take place.

Keywords
CULTURAL IDENTITY, IDENTITY ELEMENTS.