Abstract
This work informs about the results obtained in a documental investigation carried out in the year 2000 for a Seminar of Post-Graduate degree of the Master in Political Social of the National University of Salta, Argentina. It approaches the problem of the movement student university student in the general context of the social movements, especially the traditional calls, and their fight actions in front of the Politicians of Superior Education defined by the State. For it, they have been considered two historical moments of this movement in the Argentina: that of principles of passed century, represented by the students promoters of the University Reformation of 1918 and, that of century end and principles of a new millennium, represented by the University Federation Argentina (F.U.A.). It is looked for also, to identify the particular positioning of this sector before integration situations or educational exclusion that the educational politicians promote in this level of the system.

Keywords
Student movement, Politics of Superior Education, educational exclusion.