Abstract

This article analyzes the approval, contents and application of the 1980 Chilean Constitution, as well as the context in which the 54 amendments of 1989 were negotiated and passed. Emphasis is given to the interpretation of article 5, subsection 2 of the Constitution.

Keywords