Abstract
This article, first, thinks about the ideal of a nation in construction by studying its primary schools. Second, the role of school's visitors is studied, and later, by analyzing the reports that these wrote, the difficulties of the process of education are exposed—which we divide in social and academic—, considering permanently the practices and attitudes of the children of the popular sectors.

Keywords
children of popular sectors, primary school, schooling, school's visitors.