Abstract
The purpose of this article is to understand the manner how both the school time and the out-of-school time are lived by the youths in Preparatoria (High School) no. 66 of Cocotitlán, State of Mexico. The time of school, home, street, etc, are dissimilar sorts of time for the youths studying high school in Cocotitlán, and they use this time to just demonstrate a way of being.

Keywords
Youths, time, school time, out-of-school time, High School.