Abstract

This article defines the fundamental methodological opportunities for establishing nomenclature (a collection of lexical pieces submitted to lexicographical processing) in diatopically differential dictionaries and glottologic fundamentals, which sustain this applied linguistic practice.

Keywords

Lexicography, lexicology, metalexicography, diatopic lexical variation, lexematics.