

Revista de la Educación Superior

ISSN: 0185-2760

editor@anuies.mx

Asociación Nacional de Universidades e
Instituciones de Educación Superior
México

Martínez Usarralde, María Jesús

La universidad española ante el reto de la convergencia europea: entre la norma y la evidencia

Revista de la Educación Superior, vol. XXXVI (3), núm. 143, julio-septiembre, 2007, pp. 25-42

Asociación Nacional de Universidades e Instituciones de Educación Superior
Distrito Federal, México

Available in: <http://www.redalyc.org/articulo.oa?id=60414302>

Abstract

Passed the milenarist restlessness, Spanish university faces new challenges in the present scene. Starting from this reality, the article tries to know where is the university institution today. In order to carry out this analysis, in the first place, the held signs of identity until the moment are scrutinized, ending with the necessity to continue developing the paradigm of quality in the university sceneries. The second section, taking advantage of debates supported from the climate of change generated with the bet of the policies of European convergence, is centred on the elements that are forming the attachment lines of necessary university, from that concludes with reflections that project possible university.

Keywords

University, Spain, European convergence, quality, educational policy.

- How to cite
- Complete issue
- More information about this article
- Journal's homepage in redalyc.org

redalyc.org

Scientific Information System

Network of Scientific Journals from Latin America, the Caribbean, Spain and Portugal

Non-profit academic project, developed under the open access initiative