Abstract

This paper focuses on fundamental concepts on educational management, challenges and basic profiles required by specialists in this area of knowledge. The article reviews the history of educational management programs at graduate and postgraduate levels at the Sede de Guanacaste of Universidad de Costa Rica. Finally, it also explores their professional achievements to visualize the impact of those training and development programs, for the development of Guanacaste.

Keywords

Education, education management, degree, postgraduate, laboral projection.