Abstract
The essay has the purpose to set in the center of the debate, the subject about the reform of public administration as issue of reform of the State in México. The main problem is coming from the Law of the reform of State. This Law doesn’t include the public administration reform. In this sense, this essay tries to recognize the importance of public administrations in democratic systems and justify why is important his reform in this fundamental process. The essay uses a posible supposed as reasons of the exclusion of the agenda and suggests what we have to do in become the issue in a public policy. The essay is divided in: 1) The law says; 2) importante of the public administration in the reform process; 3) The disdain about the public administration public from our politicians; 4) Basic elements for the reform process of public administration; 5) Conclusions.

Keywords
Public administration, reform of the State, administrative reform.