Abstract
The objective is to describe the current state of the psychological investigation in the universities in Lima city, according to the hemerographic attributes. The sample was conformed by 312 scientific articles, gathered of 10 psychological themes magazines published by universities of Metropolitan Lima from the year 2000 to 2004. Simple descriptive statistics were used in the treatment of the data. The results are shown thoroughly in the study.

Keywords
Biblio-integrative study, psychological knowledge.