Abstract
A historical appraisal of religious literature introduces this article. Afterwards, work underlines influences and relevant marked traits of Josemaría Escriva’s literary work. Hallmarks such as his Spanish sacred oratory, biblical and patristic wisdom, divine filiation, Marian love and documentaation, are discussed here.

Keywords
religious literature, asceticism, mysticism.