Abstract

Nowadays it is a rule of thumb to say that we live in a media culture. It is frequently thought that it is only and negatively a mass media influence. John Paul II the media Pope- provided us his image of media culture and it can be acknowledged as a theory based on anthropological truths. The article shows the constitutive parts that are particular elements of the media culture theory and that amazingly lead us towards its positive sense.

Keywords

John Paul II, media culture, media culture theory, truth, anthropology.