Abstract

This headwork presents an analysis about the responsibility of the administrators in the company groups, particularly in the public company and in the cooperative society. The object of analysis is: a) definition, characteristic, fixing by-law and b) the general legal rules applicable to the responsibility of the administrators in the context of our stock company law. This rules are applicable to the public company and also to the cooperative society. The study of this rules demonstrate that they are insufficient in order to the company group and, more weight, the ignorancet of the particularities of each type of companies. This matter isn’t contained in our company law. Bay that, in this head work are included somes solutions about the rules of the administrators responsibility that must be introduced in the Spanish companies law

Keywords

responsability of the administrators, law of public company and cooperative society, law of company groups