Abstract

The main objective of this work is to develop some reflections about the confusing legal figure of the special subject relations and the difficulties posed by this situation. In order to attain this objective it has been analyzed the development this institution has had within Spanish doctrines and at the same time we referred to the sentences of the High Court related to this topic. This research is part of a study dealing with the principles regulating the administration sanctioning activity.

Keywords

Special Subject Relations, Sanctioning Administrative Law, Administrative Sanctions. Administrative Law, Sanctions Administratives