Abstract

The objective of this article is to establish a reference framework of the quality of education which involves both Economics and Education, and, at the same time, serves to start an analysis of this problem in empirical studies.

Keywords
Quality, education, economics.