Abstract
Those who work in clinical laboratory of a perinatologic hospital include not only the personnel or professionals but also its population including patients and suppliers. It is necessary to take advantage in prevention of risks. The objective is minimizing the risks for the workers, environment and patients in the face of the potential physical, chemical and biological dangers that are present in this environment.

Keywords
Safety, management of clinical laboratories, accident prevention, risks.